

FISCAL YEAR 2020
ANNUAL REPORT

MESSAGE FROM DOUG

Dear Associates,

I've heard many of you say that being part of Walmart is like having a second family. I feel the same way. We work together, we celebrate together and sometimes we hurt and heal together. When one of us hurts, we come together and lift one another up. That care can take many forms, one of them being the Associates in Critical Need Trust (ACNT), which I'm proud to support.

While this report looks back on the last year, I'm writing this letter more than halfway through 2020 – a year marked by the unexpected, both in business and in our own personal lives.

It's in those sudden moments – when the world throws us an unexpected challenge – that we're fortunate to be part of a company that is able to use its size to do good for our associates all over the world. And what's unique about Walmart and ACNT is, in spite of our scale – all 2.3 million of us – we're still able to help each other personally, associate to associate.

When associates experience an unpredictable tragedy like a fire, flood or illness, ACNT is a valuable resource. It's a way to reach out a hand to help a friend and colleague get back on their feet.

When I think about the generosity our associates have shown to each other through ACNT for nearly two decades, I feel a deep sense of gratitude. I am blessed to work with some of the finest people in the world, and your ACNT generosity is one proof point. Thank you, from the bottom of my heart.

Sincerely,

MESSAGE FROM JULIE

Dear Associates,

"How do I help?" That's a line I often hear from associates looking to support each other, and especially during this year as our world turned upside down and our stores and people took on a new role in communities.

One of the most simple, effective ways to help is to contribute to the Associates in Critical Need Trust (ACNT). Since 2001, ACNT has provided peace of mind in the form of financial support to associates experiencing hardship due to unforeseen setbacks.

The way we support each other, intentionally and selflessly, is really special. I've been at Walmart for over a decade now, and I get moved each time I hear the personal stories about what a difference ACNT makes for our associates. In FY20, your contributions added up to over $7 million, which is estimated to help 7,000 associates in need.

To those of you who have let associates in need know this resource is available: Thank you and keep it up. And to those of you who have donated and encouraged your fellow associates to support ACNT: Thank you, it is deeply appreciated. Your help makes all the difference for Walmart associates and their families.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Julie M. Gehrki". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Julie Gehrki
President, Associates in Critical Need Trust

At Walmart, supporting one another is perhaps our longest running tradition. It started in the early days with founder, Sam Walton, who “passed the hat” at Saturday Morning Meetings to encourage team members to lend a hand to fellow employees. Over the years, that tradition became company culture. The Associates in Critical Need Trust (ACNT) is an expression of that culture and an embedded part of how Walmart operates as a company.

None of us can predict when life will take a turn for the worse. An environmental disaster, serious illness or death of a loved one can come without warning and place serious financial stress on an individual and their family. Small grants from ACNT can make a big difference for an associate and their loved ones in crisis. Your contributions to ACNT have helped so many associates who faced some of life’s most challenging events.

Formed by Walmart management associates in 2001, ACNT is a 501(c)(3) whose mission is to provide financial assistance to qualifying associates at a Walmart company in the U.S. experiencing financial hardship due to an unexpected event. It provides charitable grants totaling up to $1,500 to associates in crisis. Eligible associates who are experiencing a verifiable economic hardship as a result of qualifying circumstances may apply for a grant from ACNT.

ACNT BY THE NUMBERS

Thank you for keeping Walmart’s tradition of caring alive!

SINCE ITS INCEPTION, ACNT HAS PROVIDED MORE THAN

149,000

GRANTS TO ASSOCIATES, TOTALING OVER $139 MILLION.

ASSOCIATES CONTRIBUTED OVER $7 MILLION IN FY20

GARY, FLORIDA
Team Lead, Fresh
Sam's Club associate since 1989

It was Easter 2019, a day when Gary Yarbrough and his wife should have been enjoying the holiday. Instead, tragedy struck as an electrical fire broke out in their home. Fortunately, they were not injured, but their home and cars were destroyed.

Gary's club manager, Mike Burns, encouraged him to apply for a grant from ACNT and provided support with the process. Gary says the grant money was a helpful way to pay for immediate needs such as food and other everyday essentials.

"I very much appreciate ACNT," says Gary. "It was so good to know that someone was there for us when we had this emergency."

TWILA, TEXAS
Cashier
Walmart associate since 2017

Last year, Twila Byerly's husband received a devastating diagnosis of stage III cancer. Naturally, Twila was worried about her husband's health. On top of her concern, she was also facing serious financial strain with him unable to work.

Twila found out about ACNT when talking with her HR manager, Sandra Creacy. She says Sandra was instrumental in helping her apply for the grant, which she was able to use for rent, utilities and food. Fortunately, Twila's husband eventually recovered and was able to return to work.

"It was really wonderful to find out about ACNT," she says. "I want other associates to know about it so that they could apply too."

ULI CORREA

ACNT is one of the many ways Walmart takes meaningful action to care for its associates and I'm honored to have been a part of this donor community since it was started in 2001.

It's been a privilege to work alongside so many wonderful associates over the years, and I've witnessed firsthand ACNT's capacity to restore hope after an unexpected tragedy. I'll never forget how ACNT stepped in to make a real difference immediately following Hurricanes Harvey and Maria when communities in Corpus Christi, Houston, Florida and Puerto Rico were so badly affected. I saw the impact of our contributions and I have never been so proud.

Giving to ACNT is the best way to demonstrate how much we care about our teams. 100% of the funds raised from associates are for associates, which means we get to make a real difference in people's lives.

It feels great to give and raise funds for a program whose sole purpose is to help associates in times of need. We all can make a difference and support our teams. A little can turn into a lot when we all do our part.

Uli Correa is a Regional Vice President for Dallas, Texas and has been a Walmart Associate since 1995.

JENNIE PILCHER

ACNT is about taking care of our associate family—it's about being able to have a positive impact during tough times. That's why I've been supporting the program for the last 20 years.

As a donor to ACNT, I have seen first-hand the power of the program to rewrite a person's future. In one instance, we were able to help a deaf associate in need and I will never forget the impact it had. It literally changed her life.

What really sets ACNT apart—what makes it unique from other kinds of giving—is the opportunity to help our own. While other corporate giving programs benefit outside organizations, ACNT is supported by associates, for associates. It's what makes Walmart a family.

Our associates may not feel comfortable expressing the struggles they face. Through ACNT, we can help financially while maintaining personal pride. We can have a direct impact and provide hope and comfort, simply by sharing a little of what we have.

Jennie Pilcher is a Senior Manager of Global Infrastructure Engineering and Operations and has been a Walmart Associate since 1995.

Every year, we rally our Walmart community to start the year strong with our “Stand Together Through Tough Times” campaign. Last year’s campaign, which ran from February 18 – April 5, 2019, was another great success, proving what we know well: Walmart associates take a special pride in their commitment to support each other.

We are so inspired by this year’s results and thank everyone who got involved:
